

AMP PRODUCTIONS

Aid through Music and Philanthropy

Sponsorship Information Packet • 2026

Dear Prospective Sponsor,

Thank you for considering a partnership with AMP Productions. We are a brand new 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization based in Lebanon, Oregon, dedicated to bringing our community together through the power of music while investing in the next generation of performing arts students at Lebanon High School.

This packet contains everything you need to know about our organization, our nonprofit status, our inaugural event, and the sponsorship opportunities available — including a very special limited-time opportunity available only during our founding year of 2026.

We would love to discuss how a partnership with AMP Productions can work for you. Please don't hesitate to reach out at any time.

Sincerely,

John Kluttz

President & Co-Founder, AMP Productions

ABOUT AMP PRODUCTIONS

AMP Productions (Aid through Music and Philanthropy) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to bringing people together through the power of music. We create inspiring concerts and community events that celebrate hope, generosity, and togetherness while making a meaningful difference in the lives of others.

At the heart of our mission is a commitment to performing arts education. Net proceeds from our events directly support performing arts programs at Lebanon High School, helping provide opportunities for students in music, theater, and related programs.

Our impact extends beyond the stage. Audience donations are also directed to additional charitable causes, including veterans' groups and other local needs identified by our organization.

Guiding Philosophy: Music as a Force for Good.

OUR INAUGURAL EVENT

Holiday Concert — December 12, 2026

AMP Productions is proud to present our inaugural Holiday Concert featuring Known by Name (formerly J209) — an award-winning seven-member a cappella vocal band renowned for their powerful harmonies, dynamic performances, and holiday classics that resonate with audiences of all ages.

The evening will feature an opening set from Strawberry Serenade, Lebanon High School's own contemporary a cappella group. Members of the school's Chamber Choir will also join Known by Name on stage as a backup gospel choir — giving local students the rare and unforgettable experience of sharing the stage with a professional award-winning group.
